Viticus Group Becomes an ACCME-Accredited CME Provider

Introducing Viticus Academy CME courses, coming June 2021.

LAS VEGAS, NEVADA (December 15, 2020)—After over 10 years of hosting bioskills laboratories as a nationally sought-after medical event partner, Viticus Group is happy to announce receiving accreditation from the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME). Viticus Group can now provide self-generated CME courses to meet the continuing education needs of physicians and surgeons everywhere. The nonprofit organization is now one of six accredited CME providers in Nevada and one of five in the Las Vegas area.

With this exciting news, Viticus Group plans to begin offering courses through its Viticus Academy CME education program in June 2021. Viticus Group also offers joint providership opportunities to nonaccredited organizations.

“We’re very excited to provide clinical, practical CME to the physicians coming to the Viticus Center,” says Chief Operating Officer Aubrey Arreola. “Receiving accreditation has been years in the making, and our team has worked hard to make it a reality. We’re that much more capable of furthering our mission to enhance lives worldwide through high-quality continuing education for healthcare professionals.”
