Viticus Group Invites Applicants for Dr. Jack Walther Recent Graduate Boot Camp Scholarship

Registration, lodging, ground transportation and meals covered from June 5 to 7 in Las Vegas

LAS VEGAS—Viticus Group, a leading provider of continuing education for veterinary and medical healthcare professionals worldwide, invites recent veterinary school graduates to apply for its Dr. Jack Walther Recent Graduate Boot Camp Scholarship, which will be awarded to approximately 60 recipients (subject to change). The scholarship provides an interactive three-day course for veterinarians who are zero to five years out of veterinary school and includes registration fees, lodging, ground transportation and meals. This special program, scheduled June 5 to 7 in Las Vegas, provides hands-on laboratory education at state-of-the-art training facilities and features course training in dentistry, dermatology and general surgery. A video, audio or written application must be submitted at <https://bit.ly/403OvdB> by the April 21 deadline.

“Viticus Group is proud to honor Dr. Jack Walther and continue his legacy by educating veterinary graduates and enhance animal healthcare just as he did,” said Andrea Davis, chief executive officer, Viticus Group. “Our goal is to support those who save and improve lives through innovative education, and this is just one way we’re able to achieve that.”

In its third year, the program honors the legacy of longtime Viticus Group Western Veterinary Conference (WVC) honoree and “veterinarian’s veterinarian,” Dr. Jack Walther. Information from Legacy.com: Dr. Jack Walther cared for animals and wildlife as a local veterinarian in Reno for more than 35 years, mentoring countless aspiring veterinarians and veterinary technicians along the way, and teaching a course at the University of Nevada for several years. He also served the
