Viticus Group 2024 WVC Annual Conference Registration Opens 9.6.23

Special Pricing for Limited Time Only – $96 Registration

LAS VEGAS – Viticus Group, a leading provider of continuing education for veterinary and medical healthcare professionals worldwide, opens its 96th WVC Annual Conference registration on Wednesday, Sept. 6. For a limited time, participants can register at the blockbuster savings price of $96*, receiving access to more than 850 hours of continuing education (CE), industry experts, and more than 500 exhibitors showcasing their latest products, technology and services to veterinary professionals.

“Viticus Group has elevated veterinary health education for nearly 100 years,” said Andrea Davis, chief executive officer, Viticus Group. “Our 96th WVC Annual Conference will bring new experiences from accessible technological advances to creating learners of the future who will sustain this industry into the future and beyond.”

It's Time to Vet Differently at the WVC Annual Conference where participants will enjoy world-class continuing education, Vegas-style entertainment and never-before-seen educational programs that highlight innovative active learning opportunities.

Viticus Group, headquartered in Las Vegas, is home to the largest freestanding combined animal and human hands-on (bioskills) training and continuing education organization in the world. Hands-on training courses are offered at WVC Annual Conference, as well as year-round at Viticus Group Education Centers in Las Vegas. The WVC Annual Conference is one of the oldest and largest veterinary conferences in the United States and features one of the largest exhibit halls in the vet industry.

WVC participants, especially those who take advantage of the $96 conference pricing, are encouraged to register for hands-on training courses during the conference to expand their learning and training opportunities. Hands-on training is an additional purchase to conference registration.
